

Drug and Alcohol Education Prevention ACCESS Program

When: Wednesdays at 7:00 - 8:30 p.m., February 9 - May 11, 2011

Where: Fortunoff Hall and Kramer Science Center, Dowling College
Rudolph-Oakdale Campus, 150 Idle Hour Boulevard, Oakdale, NY 11769

February 9: Overview of substance abuse and addiction

Fortunoff Hall Study

February 16: Alcohol and alcoholism

Fortunoff Hall Study

February 23: Overview of prescription drug abuse

Fortunoff Hall Study

March 2: Parents: get involved

Fortunoff Hall Study

March 9: Young people: drugs of abuse - marijuana, club drugs

Fortunoff Hall Study

March 16: Women and substance abuse

Fortunoff Hall Study

March 30: Co-dependency and ACOA

Fortunoff Hall Study

April 6: Reducing your risk: how to stay safe if you drink

Fortunoff Hall Study

April 13: Cocaine, crack, heroin and methadone

Kramer Science Center Conference Room

April 27: Violence and alcohol and other drugs: the anger continues

Fortunoff Hall Study

May 4: Health risks of substance abuse

Fortunoff Hall Study

May 11: Recovery: issues, resources and relapse prevention

Fortunoff Hall Study

Attend this 12-week community education series, featuring films and discussions, questions and answers, free of charge. These workshops are open to all students, faculty, staff and the community. A Certificate of Completion will be issued to individuals who attend all 12 sessions.

For additional information, call 631.224.5330.

This series is sponsored by Town of Islip ACCESS-Department of Human Services and Dowling College Office of Personal Assistance and Counseling.